Read the following and edit on the computer:

A. figure out if each one is a complete sentence; if not, fix it.
B. rewrite each sentence to make it better; look for typical errors in punctuation, spelling and word usage.
C. Group sentences together that seem to work well together; sequence them in a logical order.
D. Create a paragraph out of each sentence sequence you are able to put together. Complete each with additional sentences and a conclusion.
E. Add a title to each paragraph

1. Five ways that I know on how to get money.

2. Don’t study for a test weeks days months? Before and instead zoom over everything you’ve ever reviewed just before the test so you can quickly remember stuff with less stress.

3. You will need flour, eggs, oil, milk, baking powder. And salt.

4. One way to earn money is to get a job.

5. Be sociable and willing to talk to people that will help you to meet new people.

6. To start you need to get all the ingredients.

7. Begin by putting everything that is on the floor, on your bed.

8. Most people have friends and friends are probably one of the most important things in most people’s lives.

9. Is your room a mess? Has your mom been yelling at you for the past four days? Does it look like Hurricane Katrina took a trip to your room? I can help.

10. Three-year-olds are sometimes a piece of work, so here’s my tips on how to entertain them.

11. Then sort and organize and put everything in it’s place.

12. If you are a person who, like me, moved to a different country than where you lived before, you want to make friends.
13. Everyone has to clean their room at some point, or else your room will turn into a box of mold!

14. The first step in cooking a pancake is getting pancake mix.

15. Next is to add eggs. And all other wet ingredients.

16. If they are willing, take them for a walk.

17. Another is to sell something you produce, like vegetables from your garden.

18. Measure the dry stuff into a bowl and blend together.

19. Getting them lost might seem like a good idea but it may not make them happy.

20. Some people get rich with investment in the stock market and mortgages.